

KENTON SCHOOL LEARNING JOURNEY - PSYCHOLOGY

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Year 12	Approaches The study of key theories in psychology. These theories discuss why humans behave the way they do.	Research Methods The study of how psychologists carry out research. Research methods includes learning about scientific processes, different ways research can be conducted and how data is analysed.	Memory The study of how memories are created and forgotten and how memory can be improved for important issues such as eyewitness testimony.	Social Influence The study of the way humans can influence others through the social processes of conformity and obedience.	Psychopathology The study of the characteristics, explanations and treatments of a range of psychological disorders.	Attachment Theories and research into the importance of attachments and relationships between parents and children for psychological wellbeing.
Year 13	Biopsychology The study of the biological structures and processes involved in our psychology and behaviour, such as the brain and nervous system and the impact of hormones.	Research Methods Further study of the key principles and processes involved in psychological research at a higher level. Including statistical testing and significance.	Forensic Psychology The study of the role of psychology in criminal investigations and in understanding criminal behaviour.	Schizophrenia The study of schizophrenia, from diagnosis and symptoms to treatment.	Gender The study of gender, including how our concept of gender develops and the impact of factors such as media and culture.	Issues & Debates Application of key debates in psychology e.g. nature vs nurture to all topics covered throughout the course.

KENTON SCHOOL LEARNING JOURNEY - PSYCHOLOGY

